

CONTENTS.

OPHTHALMOLOGY.

	PAGE.
I. REMARKS ON THE FIELD OF VISION IN CERTAIN CASES OF "NEGLECTED EYES." By G. E. de Schweinitz , M. D., of Philadelphia	249
II. SOME FINDINGS CONCERNING SO-CALLED MUSCLE-IMBALANCE AND ITS TREATMENT. By George M. Gould , A. M., M. D., of Philadelphia.....	262
III. CHRONIC INTERSTITIAL OPHTHALMITIS. (CHRONIC SIMPLE GLAUCOMA.) By S. O. Richey , M. D., of Washington, D. C.	271
IV. PROGNOSTIC SIGNIFICANCE OF ALBUMINURIC RETINITIS. By E. Oliver Belt , M. D., of Washington, D. C.....	291
V. THE RECONSTRUCTION OF THE LID BORDER IN ENTROPIUM OF THE UPPER LID. By F. C. Hotz , M. D., of Chicago.....	296
VI. HEREDITARY RETRO-BULBAR NEURITIS. By Oscar Dodd , M. D., of Chicago.....	300
VII. THE OBLIQUE MUSCLES AS RELATED TO OBLIQUE ASTIGMATISM: REPLY TO DR. HOTZ'S CRITICISM. By G. C. Savage , M. D., of Nashville, Tenn.....	305
VIII. NOTES OF A CASE OF GLIOMA OF THE RETINA. By Alfred J. Horsey , M. D. of Ottawa, Canada.....	317
IX. A NEW ARTIFICIAL EYE, MADE ENTIRELY OF GLASS AND GIVING IMAGES OF EXACTLY THE SAME SIZE AS THE SCHEMATIC EYE OF HELMHOLTZ. By Carl Weiland , M. D., of Philadelphia	320
X. SARCOMA OF CHOROID. By Alfred J. Horsey , M. D., of Ottawa, Canada.....	324
XI. A CASE ILLUSTRATING THE RELATION BETWEEN THE MUSCULAR BALANCE OF THE EYES AND THEIR REFRACTIVE CONDITION. By C. E. Norton , M. D., of Lewiston, Maine.....	326
XII. THE QUARTER DIOPTRY CYLINDER—SOME TESTIMONY FOR. By E. E. Hamilton , M. D., of Wichita, Kan.....	328

XIII.	TETANUS FOLLOWING WOUND OF LOWER EYELID. By George F. Keiper , A. M., M. D., of LaFayette, Ind.....	336
XIV.	GALLICIN, A GALLIC ACID DERIVATIVE—ITS USE IN THE TREATMENT OF EYE DISEASES. By George F. Suher , M. D., of Toledo, Ohio.....	338
XV.	REPORT OF CASE IN COUNTER EVIDENCE TO INFECTIOUS THEORY OF SYMPATHETIC OPHTHALMIA. By H. L. Hilgartner , M. D., of Austin, Texas.....	340
XVI.	RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN DISEASES OF THE EYE AND BRAIN. By Robert Fields LeMond , A. M., M. D., of Denver, Col....	345
XVII.	GUNSHOT INJURY INVOLVING BOTH EYES, STUDIED NINE YEARS AFTER THE ACCIDENT. By Robert R. Saunders , M. D., of Philadelphia.....	350
XVIII.	CASE OF RETENTION OF A METALLIC SPLINTER IN A BLIND EYE FOR SEVENTEEN YEARS WITHOUT THE OCCURRENCE OF SYMPATHETIC INFLAMMATION. CASE OF MEMBRANA PUPILLARIS PERSEVERANS IN BOTH EYES IN AN ADULT. By J. M. Banister , A. B., M. D., of Fort Leavenworth, Kan....	353
XIX.	ABSTRACTS FROM AMERICAN AND ENGLISH OPHTHALMIC JOURNALS. By Charles H. May , M. D., of New York. The Parallax Test for Heterophoria—Ephedrin, the New Mydriatic; Review of the Work of Dr. Groenouw and Dr. Geppert—Clinical and Anatomical Study of Serous or Simple Cysts of the Conjunctiva—Diabetic Retinitis—Diseases of the Eye Dependent on the Grip—New Operation for Ptosis—Interstitial Keratitis and Synovitis, with a Report of a Case in Which Both Were Unilateral—New Application of the Keratometer of Javal—Peculiar Perversion of the Color Perception—Blood-Staining of the Cornea	356
XX.	ABSTRACTS FROM FOREIGN OPHTHALMIC JOURNALS. By Casey A. Wood , M. D., of Chicago. Variations in the Pupil Accompanying Pulmonary Tuberculosis—The Operative Treatment of High Degrees of Myopia—Myoma of the Choroid—The Vossius Method in Cataract Extraction—A Case of Repair of a Large Rupture of the Lens Capsule Without the Formation of Cataract—Gland-like Bodies Beneath the Anterior Lenticular Capsule.....	367

OTOLOGY.

XXI.	REPORTS OF SEVEN INTERESTING EAR CASES. By D. Milton Greene , M. D., of Grand Rapids, Mich.....	379
XXII.	SYSTEMATIC ACOUSTIC GYMNASTICS IN THE TREATMENT OF DEAFMUTISM AND CASES OF NERVE DEAFNESS IN GENERAL, AS ADVOCATED BY PROFESSOR URBANTSCHITSCH, OF VIENNA. By J. Steele Barnes , M. D., of Milwaukee.....	390

- XXIII. TRANSLATIONS FROM CURRENT FOREIGN OTOLOGICAL LITERATURE (Abridged). By Henry A. Alderton, M. D., of Brooklyn. Tri-Chloracetic Acid in Chronic Suppuration of the Ear—Communication Upon Deep Brain Abscess, Consequent Upon Acute Disease of the Temporal Bone—Observations on Hereditary Syphilis of the Middle Ear—Two Cases of Hematoma in External Auditory Canal in Children—A Rare Case of Verbal Deafness—A Method to Render Microscopic Preparations of the Hearing Organs Transparent..... 395
- XXIV. ABSTRACTS FROM CURRENT FOREIGN OTOLOGICAL LITERATURE. By T. Melville Hardie, M. D., of Chicago. Treatment of 130 Cases of Ear Disease with Glycerin, Carbolic Acid and Menthol—Experiments on the Irrigation of the Tympanic Cavity—Treatment of Purulent Inflammation of the Middle Ear in Which There is a Small Perforation at the Point of a Mammiform Projection on the Drum—Irrigation of Tympanum—Results of the Conservative Method of Treatment in Chronic Suppuration of the Upper Cavities of the Tympanum—Extrinsic Auricular Reflexes—The Recognition of Protrusion of the Jugular Vein Into the Tympanum During Life—Hemorrhage Into the Drum After Paracentesis of the Membrane from Perforation of the Veins Accompanying the Nerve of Jacobson—Lining Mastoid Cavity After Chiselling—Treatment of the Attic in Chronic Suppuration..... 405
- XXV. ABSTRACTS FROM CURRENT AMERICAN AND ENGLISH OTOLOGICAL LITERATURE. By Leonard A. Dessar, M. D., of New York. Furunculosis of the External Auditory Canal—Clonic Spasm of the Tensor Tympani—A Few Otological Don'ts—The Electro-Pneumatic Masseur in Tinnitus Aurium—Successful Mechanical Treatment of Some Unusual Aural Conditions—Evacuation of the Tympanum—Diffuse External Otitis..... 412

NEUROLOGY.

- XXVI. ABSTRACTS FROM CURRENT NEUROLOGICAL LITERATURE. By Wendell Reber, M. D., of Pottsville, Pa. The Alleged Reflex Causes of Nervous Diseases—Peculiar Iris-Reaction in the Presence of Post-Neuritic Optic Atrophy—Note of a Case of Softening of the Right Angular Gyrus, with Left-Sided Ptosis—A Case of Alexia (Word Blindness) with Right-Sided Homonymous Hemianopsia—Optic Neuritis as a Sign of Brain Tumor—A Case of Tabes, Associated with Remotely Previous Hemiplegia, and Exhibiting Unilateral Reflex Iris Paralysis..... 417

RHINOLOGY AND LARYNGOLOGY.

xxvii. THE SO-CALLED BLEEDING POLYPUS OF THE NASAL SEPTUM. By W. Freudenthal , M. D., of New York.....	424
xxviii. SURGICAL TREATMENT OF LARYNGEAL TUBERCULOSIS; AB- STRACT OF A PAPER. By J. W. Gleitsmann , M. D., of New York	431
xxix. ACUTE TONSILLITIS DEPENDENT UPON THE RHEUMATIC DIATHESIS; ABSTRACT OF A PAPER. By Geo. B. Hope , M. D., of New York.....	434
xxx. CASE OF CIRCUMSCRIBED GUMMATOUS ULCERATIVE TUMOR OF THE LARYNX. By Dr. E. W. Tschlenow , of Moscow. Translated and abridged by J. W. Gleitsmann , M. D., of New York	436
xxxi. ABSTRACTS FROM CURRENT RHINOLOGICAL AND LARYN- GOLOGICAL LITERATURE. By M. D. Ledermann , M. D., of New York. A Consideration of the Vascular Mechanism of the Nasal Mucous Membrane—Tubercular Tumors of the Larynx—Hemorrhagic Pharyngitis—Zinc Stearate in the treatment of Atrophic Rhinitis—Removal of the Tonsils by Wire Snares—Disease of the Middle Turbinate with Pus in the Ethmoid Cells—Cocain in Chloroform Narcosis—Enchondroma Arising from Nasal Bone— Case of Congenital Atresia of the Naso-Pharynx—Saddle- Back Nose.....	439
PROFESSIONAL NEWS.....	443
PRACTICE FOR SALE.....	443

BOOK NOTICES.

SKIASCOPY AND ITS PRACTICAL APPLICATION TO THE STUDY OF REFRACTION. By Edward Jackson , A. M., M. D.....	444
WILLS EYE HOSPITAL REPORTS, Vol. I., No. 1.....	444
A SYSTEM OF LEGAL MEDICINE. By Allen McLane Hamilton , M. D....	445
THE YEAR-BOOK OF TREATMENT FOR 1895.....	447